"STILL WATERS" Krazy Kat Cartoon

Produced by Charles B. Mintz Distributed by Paramount

Krazy Kat rides into town on a queer looking dog. He sees signs posted all over and goes to the Police Departmmnt to investigate. He is told that there is a large award awaiting the one that captures a band of notorious moonshiners.

Krazy Kat goes forth with his hound and finally finds the moonshiners hide-out. He disguises himself as a girl and passes the guards' post. Inside the house there is a regular brewery. The feline holds everyone up but someone turns off the light. When it is turned on again, Krazy Kat is in their capture. They throw him out but he immediately starts shooting.

He finally captures them but they are so disfigured that the police chief does not recognize them when Krazy Kat brings them in, and the Kat argues with him for the reward. In the meantime the moonshiners have come back to their normal selves again and they grab the Kat and beat him up.
